Dear Dr. Lin,

My name is Manuel Olguín Muñoz, and I am a second year PhD. Student at the KTH Royal Institute of Technology doing research on the applications of Edge Computing.

At HotMobile '19 I will be presenting a paper titled EdgeDroid: An Experimental Approach to Benchmarking Human-in-the-Loop Applications. This paper embodies my work so far in the field of Wearable Cognitive Assistance and Edge Computing, and was written in close collaboration with Prof. Satya's Elijah Research Group at Carnegie Mellon University.

Best regards,

Manuel Olguín Muñoz
